FRIGID AT BELMONT PARK.

BUT NOT ENOUGH SO TO PREVENT A BIG AT-TENDANCE AND INDIFFERENT RACING.

Golden Legend a Painful Surprise-Gowan Continue Her Winning Streak in a Fast Mile and a Half.

New York, October 12.—It was a bit like winter at Belmont Park this afternoon. Very few of the saccataors braved the biting wind that blew into the grandstand, nearly everybody taking refuge on the lawns and in the paddock, where the sun tembered the cold. Strange to say, the altendance was considerably larger than on the opening day. The excellent and promising card was partially ruled by withdrawals, wholesale scratching reducing the considerably larger than on the opening day. The excellent and from starters each.

nost promising young steeplechase prospects of the season. They will make their debut in the Harbor Hill.

It was learned today that J. E. Widener made an unsuccessful attempt to lease Thistledale to represent him in the Brook Cup, run last Saturday. In the case of John W. Freit, a stable boy, against august Belmont to recover $100,000 damages, closed today before Judge Amend in the Supreme Court, a furry brought in a verifict for Mr. Belmont after thirty minutes' deliberation. The judge instructed the jurors that the whole case hinged on the question as to whether or not Mr. Belmont had discharged the boy when he turned him over to L. V. Bell. If Mr. Belmont, the boy and his mother believed the transfer was a discharge and so conducted themselves at the time, the jury was to find that he was discharged.

DOUGLAS PARK ATTENDANCE IMPROVING.

Pinkola Defeats Czar Easily in a High-Class Raco-St. Valentine Wins.

Louisville, Ky., October 12.—Pinkola's smart performance of carrying 118 pounds, conceding much weight to the other starters and winning the handicap at a mile and seventy yards, incidentally reducing the former track record, was the feature of the day's racing. The Fizer crack was called on the perform a task second only to his, effort in the Empire City Handicap, and did it in almost equally brilliant fashion. Because of the Hight weight that Czar had up he was thought to have the race at his mercy, but after active contention for three-quarters he offered no further serious opposition and left Pinkola to come on to an easy victory. Czar taking second place handily from Old Honesty. Kercheval, which finished fourth, give little Indication that he will not continue training as he pulled un sound. Recently he changed ownership, new being the property of A. Holberg, a Cincinnat merchant.

An increased attendance was present this afternoon. This was partly accounted for by the numerous arrivals nere from Canada, where the racing season terminated Saturday last. Speculation also showed an increase. Fayorites landed four of the afternoon's purses, the winning outsiders, which included Pinkola and St. Valentine, being also heavilly supported. The best finish of the afternoon came in the closing race, when Topsy Robinson. Dunvegan and Beau Brummel finished noses apart. The winner was much the best, but bungling riding on the part of jockey Glasner almost brought about her defeat. Goldproof, in the first race, also had a narrow escape from defeat on account of the poor ride given him by Griffin. Goldproof was apparently all easy winner when rounding into the stretch, but carclessness on Griffin's part caused him to bore out to the outer fence and almost enabled Robin Hood to get by him.

Harney Schreiber's Almena, which has been showing speed and consistency in her recent starts, took the second race from a big band of maiden youngsters. St. Valentine furnished the surprise by landing the third race from Maid Militant and Militades, with the favorite, Mortibov, just outside the money. Gerymander again showed his good form by winning the fifth race in a big canter from the suddenly improved Enfield.

The judges fined jockey Powers $56 for rough riding in the second race, he having interfered sharply with A. Waish on Fair Money.

Miller Henderson is negotiating with Barney Schreiber for the transfer of Allee George and Sorrowful. The consideration is said to be $4,000.

Returning horsenien from Lexington, who spent Sunday there, are hopeful that the Kentucky Racing Commission will sanction the request of the Latonia management to put on the books.

The belief that Hot Springs will have racing this winter almost amounts to a certainty in the minds of many here. It is also said that Essex Park will divide dates with Oaklawn.

DISTINGUISHED RACERS GOING ABROAD.

Priscillian, Fair Play and Possibly Colin To Be Sent To England for a Campaign.

New York, October 12.—On Saturday thirty horses, the property of Harry Payne Whitney, Herman B. Duryea, August Belmont and John E. Madden, will be loaded aboard the Atlantic transport steamer Minnehaha and shipped to London. From London they will be sent to different parts of England and France. In the band that will go abroad to win fame and dollars for their owners are Sir Martin, champion two-year-old of the year, his stablemates, Fayette and Lady Bedford, and Priscillian. Practical, Mediant, Ben Bau, Spectatress, Sea Cliff, Stamina and a number of yearlings. In these popular interest will attach to the doings of Sir Martin and Fayette.
One day at Sheepshead Bay, while Sir Martin and Fayette were waiting for the bugle to call them to the bost for the Flatbush Stakes, Madden was looking them over and talking to a number of friends. "Yes, one of them will win," he said, "but it is nothing to what they will do later. They are the wo best horses that have ever been in my barn, and next year all Americans interested in the thoroogh bred horse will be singing their praises, for they are going over to England and one of them will take care of the winner's end of the Derby," That state. Bent aroused the greatest interest at the time. At first it was thought it was made with the idea of addicing some millionaire to pay a fabulous price or the horses. That has been dissipated, however, by the fact that while Madden has had all sorts of offers for his champions, be has steadily refused to nart with them, and unless some man is willing to pay Madden's price, which is $100,000 for the pair, are will not sell them singly, they will carry the Jadden colors in the Epsom Derby.

Fair Play and Priscillian will be sent to England and be especially pointed for the Ascot Gold Cup.

Fair Play and Priscillian will be sent to England until atter the Jockey Club Weight-for-Age Race of two niles and a quarter is decided at Belmont Park next saturday.

What is probably of more importance to Americans is the inclination of Mr. James R.

niles and a quarter is decided at Belmont Park Beat Saturday.
What is probably of more importance to Americans is the inclination of Mr. James R. Keene to send Colin to England to run in the Ascot Gold Cup. With Colin and Fair Play pitted against the very west that England can produce, it would be a race of the most pronounced importance, for never before jas there been an American invasion so strong as his. If both were sent to the post in the same condition that they have shown on this side of the Atlantic it is safe to venture that hundreds of Americans would make the trip across to see the contest.

Americans would make the trip across to see the contest.

Whether Colin goes depends entirely upon the result of a consultation of veterinarians with James Rowe, the trainer of the horse, and Mr. Keene. If t is believed that Colin will stand the strain of training he will undoubtedly be shipped to England, as there will be little for him to carn on this side of the Atlantic. It is thought that Colin will be more likely to stand training in England than he would here, owing to the work being done on a soft grass cushion, which is not so severe on a horse with the speed of Colin.

The Ascot Cup is over a course of two and a half miles, which will suit both Colin and Fair Play. If Fair Play goes to the post he will be ridden by the American rider. Danny Maher, Colin will be placed in the hands of 8. Darling, the English trainer, as Mr. Keene's home interests will require the services of Mr. Rowe in this country.

MAKING PROGRESS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Directors of New Orleans Jockey Club Vote to Turn City Park Over to Holding Company.

New Orleans, La., October 12.—A special meeting of the board of directors of the New Orleans Jockey Club, held this afternoon, ratified the proposition of President Samuel F. Heaslip to form a holding company and take over the property for a minety days winter meeting. The scheme to lease the track to a holding company went through without any objection and it now remains for the new company to be formed. Incidentally, however, nothing bas been done on the part of the Crescent City Jockey Club and no announcement has been made as to a meeting of its directors. After closing the leasing matter, today's meeting of the New Orleans Jockey Club directors considered the question of how betting can be conducted at the meeting.

"Betting will be conducted along individual lines." Saide President Heaslip after the conference. "We are not yet ready with the details, but the system adopted will be strictly within the pale of the law," The fact that the Horsemen's Matinee Racing Club. that has been conducting Saturday and Sunday afternoon racing at Suburban Park without bookmaking, in order to conform to the Locke law, susnended operations yesterday and announced defeat, appeared to have no dampening effect on the new winter racing scheme. The Suburban promoters stated after yesterday's attempt that they would give up and that the racing was a complete financial failure without betting to pay the bills.

the racing was a comple betting to pay the bills.

WASHINGTON HORSE SHOW RACING.

Washington, D. C., October 12.—The inaugural meeting of the Washington Horse Show and Racing Association began today at Benning before a small crowd. Society was well represented, but the regulars failed to respond in spite of the fact that as an inducement for their patronage four running races were given. There was practically no betting to speak of on the grounds, and very little money changed hands during the afternoon. Had Woods Garth had an entry in the jumping race he would probably have made a clean sweep of the card. As it was he furnished the winners in the three dat races in Flat Creek, Trey of Spades and Wild Refrain.

James Milton did the starting and his work at the barrier was good. Frank J. Bryan acted as presiding judge, and Samuel Ross and General W. T. Townes were the stewards. The meeting will continue until next Saturday.

C. R. Ellison notified Secretary Treat today that his stable would leave New York for the coast immediately upon arrival of a car which has been ordered.

W. O'B. Macdonough's stallion, Ormondale, will remain at Blue Ridge Stud another season, at the request of Henry Oxnard.

Walter Jennings departed today for Santa Anita, where he will race his string, including Proper, which is in training affer a season in the stud. Proper will be run in selling races if his suspicious leg remits his starting.

Blasingame Bros. Little Jane, Stilicho, Johnny White and Colony arrived today from summer quarters at Fresno. Johnny White has been attending races at the California fairs.

Jock y Koerner has returned from Los Angeles and renorted to S. C. Hildreth. He has taken on much weight since the Seattle meeting c'os d and will have to reduce hard to make riding weight.

Col. W. E. Applegate notified Secretary Treat today that he would ship eleven horses from Kentucky. His Seattle string, eight in number, is already here.

BELMONT PARK STAKE RACING.

Four stake races of importance will be decided at Steerlechase and the Champagne Stakes Wednesday afternoon and the Champagne Stakes Wednesday afternoon and the Champion Steeplechase and Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Race next Saturday. The Harbor Hill Cup is for three-year-olds over the about two miles course and is endowed by Clarence H. Mackay with $3,000 in added money and a $500 cup. Little is known of the proficiency in jumping of the fifteen entered. The Champagne is at seven furlongs with $5,000 added and has Helmet, Selectman, Maskette, Field Mouse, Practical Etherial, High Private, Joe Madden, Edward, Miss Kearney, Lady Hubbard, Perseus, County Fair and Sea Cliff among its nominations. The Champion Steeplechase is over a course of about three and a half miles and will net the winner close to $5,000. Ironsides, Grandpa, Yama Christy, Agent, Senctus, Jimmy Lane, Waterspeed, Coligny and Mark Gumberts are those deemed likely to start. The Belmont Park Weicht-for-Age Race has $5,000 added and is over the cup route of two and a quarter miles. Fair Play, Frank Gill, Master Robert, Angelus Philander, Falcada and Brother Jonathan are those that will furnish the field.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A. D. Walstrom, who raced at Butte during the summer, captured the Spokane Derby last Tuesday with his fast colt, Royal Ben.

Jockey "Puddin'" McDaniel is credited with declaring that he is about to abandon riding for good and become a truck and noultry farmer in the vicinity of the City of New York.

J. L. Adams will ship his horses to Dallas, Texas, for the meeting which opens there October 17. Momentum, Chief Hayes and Monte Carlo are the eldef wimers in Adams' stable and should do well on the Texas circuit.

Vell, the fast full sister to Maskette, that ran so

Vell, the fast full sister to Maskette, that ran so disappointingly for San Hildreth in California last winter, was turned out all summer at Brentwood, and is reported to have filled out into a grand appearing more, one that may race to her New York form next winter.

form next winter.

The addition of Guiding Star, Obey and Bright Skies increases the strength of John Lowe's stable to six. Lowe previously had Gene Russell, Marian Casey and Micaela. He is also training Walter Miller for P. Olsen. Obey is a full sister to the good racer, Ram's Horn.

Work Box, the colt that F. W. Doss claimed from S. C. Hildreth last winter, has developed into a fine looking animal and the wise ones pick him as likely to be more than ordinarily useful as a three-year-old. He will be ready for racing in the early days of the Oakland meeting, after having been on the shelf all summer.

Ramus, the horse that T. H. Williams purchased last spring from T. H. Stevens with the winning of the Waterhouse Cup in view, only to have him shortly afterward go wrong, is being trained to a cart this fall, instead of in the usual way. Dr. Rowell is greatly pleased with the improvement that the horse's underpinning shows, and Big Bow will be trained by the same method.

In winning the Jerome Handleap and Municipal Handleap. Fair Play has disposed of the hardest two-thirds of his task appointed before the beginning of the Belmont Park meeting. The third and remaining of the Belmont Park meeting. The third and remaining of the Belmont Park meeting. The third and remaining of the Belmont Park meeting. The third and remaining of the Belmont Park meeting. The third and remaining of the Belmont Park weight-for-Age Race mext Saturday. Except that it is over the longest distance of the three, this should be the easlest of them all for him. The distance is two miles and a quarter, but his opponents will have to meet him on even terms in weight.

It is given out, correctly enough probably, that Rudolph Spreckels is preparing to wage war against California racing next winter. He will be accommodated amply and defeated. He is credited with saying the turf "is being ruined by commercialism." When he gathered his stable and entered racing, the government of the California turf was as it now is and it did not occur to him that anything was wrong then. Defeat in San Francisco local and legislative nominations for his men is the real cause of sudden discovery that racing, as now conducted, is all wrong.

	time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may 106×710	be the estimated time of a losing performance.

The "odds" figures in connection with the present Louisville meeting are the calculations made by Daily Racing Form and based on mutuel pools. They are published in such form for the mere purpose of mechanical uniformity. The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.
